

Detectives release e-fit following Farnborough indecent assault

Detectives investigating an indecent assault in Farnborough have released an e-fit image of a man they would like to speak to in connection with the incident.

At around 4.45pm on Sunday, May 24 a 13-year-old boy was at the public toilets in Cove Green.

While inside the toilets he was approached by a man who grabbed his arm and then indecently assaulted him.

The boy managed to break free and then ran off towards Cove Road. He was not followed by the man, who was seen to leave the park and walk along Cove Road and then Orchard Road.

The man is described as:

- White
- Aged in his 50s or 60s
- Around 5ft 9ins tall
- Scruffy looking
- Wrinkled face
- Baggy eyes
- Brown hair that was shaved or balding on top and longer at the sides
- Short, scruffy finger nails
- Wearing a brown zip up jacket that was either sleeveless or had short sleeves, a red jumper with green sleeves, blue jeans and white Lonsdale trainers

Detective Constable Katie Barry, of the Public Protection Unit, said: “We have released this image in the hope that someone may recognise the man.

“We would ask anyone who can identify the image or anyone with any other information about the incident to contact police as soon as possible.”

Anyone with information should contact Det Con Barry at Fleet police station on 0845 045 45 45 or call the Crimestoppers charity anonymously on 0800 555 111.

For more information about policing in your area visit the local policing pages of Hampshire Constabulary at www.hampshire.police.uk.